Comment: 25X1A

a. It is believed that there is a police school located in GROLLMAIN, where police undergo infantry training in successive courses. It may be safely assumed that, in addition to the police school, the reported "police brigades" are stationed in GROSSINMAIN. This assumption is corroborated by the fact that police units were reported located in the Russeren kaserne whereas the police school was located in the Lemonts Johnle.

b. The "police brigades" presumably are receiving replacements from the police school and allegedly recruit volunteers for the "Greece" army. The "police brigades" are probably cadre units of the "Ernet Thackmann" Brigade which simultaneously furnishes replacements for the Ercek civil war. This assumption is supported by the statement that the units were equipped with weapons and motor vehicles. Although there is no evidence that the GREENMAIL police is equipped with tanks, it can be assumed that entitank defense is being practiced there.
